Teen Event

Stonehaus Farm Tour

On May 15th, there will be a tour for Stonehaus Farm on Forsythia Drive off of 58 W. It will be $5 per person, regardless of age. The tour will start at 10:00 and end at 12:00. The children can try to milk a goat, feed the chickens and learn about all the animals at the farm. A handout will be included for each child, that gives them the highlights of what they saw that day. You may bring a packed lunch, if you would like, and watch the animals as you eat.

For $10 per child, and depending on their age, children can stay after the tour and join in on a condiments class, teaching them how mustard, mayonnaise, butter, ketchup and peanut butter is made. They will also make bread from scratch and taste all that we have made, along with a lesson on vegetables and fruits. This will take another two hours to complete, including lunch.

RSVP at the May school skate.

Yearbook Pages

If you would like to be in the yearbook, please make a family page of pictures from this past year. Give them to Lynn Divers or Helenmary Brown by the end of May. If you have pictures of events talk with Lynn Divers about putting together events pages.

The cost should be around $30 for a yearbook. We will know when we get all the pages in.
